MOTHER DAUGHTER BLESSING

WORDS OF TRUTH

A mother's love for her child is like nothing else in the world. It knows no law, no pity, it dares all things and crushes down remorselessly all that stands in its path." - Agatha Christie

What to Expect

On Saturday evening, after dinner, you'll share a special moment with your daughter — a time to speak truth, blessing, and prayer over her. We call this moment "Words of Truth," and it's one of the most meaningful parts of the weekend.

Your Role as Mom

You were hand-selected by God to guide, nurture, and speak life into your daughter. Your words matter—they shape how she sees herself and remind her who God says she is.

Preparing Your Blessing

Write your daughter a letter from the heart. Share what you see in her - her character, her growth, her strengths - and remind her that she is deeply loved by you and by God. You might find the character qualities on the following pages helpful as you think about what to write. Feel free to use the paper provided if you would like. Take your time with this blessing - this letter will be a keepsake she treasures for years to come.

If your daughter has attended before: focus on the past year - new growth, moments you've noticed, and ways she's matured.

During "Words of Truth"

- After dinner and conversation cards, find a quiet spot at your table or outside.
- Bring your Bible and read a verse that is meaningful to you, then share why it is important. You may use the verse below if you'd like:

"For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well." Psalm 139:13-14

- Read your letter aloud to your daughter, and give her time to listen and respond if she wishes. Use this moment to share why you love her, what you see in her, and how she is growing into everything God created her to be.
- Pray together - over her life, your relationship, and your bond. Thank God for her and ask Him to strengthen your connection. Invite her to pray as well, if she's comfortable.

Remember

This time isn't about perfect words — it's about your heart. Let her hear truth from you — that she is deeply loved, wonderfully made, and never alone.
